INSTRUCTIONS FOR EMPLOYER OR OTHER PERSON PROVIDING HEALTH INSURANCE

These instructions apply only to an Order for Health Insurance Coverage issued by a court.

1. If the obligor works for you or is covered by health insurance provided by you, you must give him or her a copy of this order within 10 days after you receive it.
2. Unless you receive a motion to quash the assignment, you must take steps to begin or maintain coverage of the specified children within 30 days after you deliver a copy of this order to the obligor. The coverage should begin at the earliest possible time consistent with group plan enrollment rules.
3. The obligor's existing health coverage will be replaced only if the children are not provided benefits under the existing coverage where they reside.
4. If the obligor is not enrolled in a plan and there is a choice of several plans, you may enroll the children in any plan that will reasonably provide benefits or coverage where they live, unless the court has ordered coverage by a specific plan.
5. If no coverage is available, complete the Declaration of No Health Insurance Coverage at the top of this page and mail the declaration by first-class mail to the attorney or person seeking the assignment within 20 days of your receipt of this order. Keep a copy of the form for your records.
6. If coverage is provided, you must supply evidence of coverage to both parents and to any person having custody of the child.
7. Upon request of the parents or person having custody of the child, you must provide all forms and other documentation necessary for submitting claims to the insurance carrier to the extent you provide them to other covered individuals.
8. You must notify the applicant of the effective date of the coverage of the children.
9. You will be liable for any amounts incurred for health care services that otherwise would have been covered under the insurance policy if you willfully fail to comply with this order. You can also be held in contempt of court. California law forbids your firing or taking any disciplinary action against any employee because of this order.
